

The Kansas City Times

VOL. 125. NO. 123.

*****

KANSAS CITY, WEDNESDAY, MAY 23, 1962—32 PAGES.

JET ON WAY HERE DOWN

A BOEING 707 CONTINENTAL AIRLINES JET like this one was reported missing last night on a flight from Chicago to here and was believed to have crashed near Centerville, Ia.

Continental Airlines With 37 Passengers Bound From Chicago to Kansas City Near Kirksville

MOTORIST FINDS PARTS

Pieces of a Large Liner Reported Near Centerville, Ia., Apparently the Missing Craft, but No Bodies Found.

VIOLENT WEATHER IS ALOFT

Officials of Richards-Gebaur Air Force Base Say One of Their Pilots in Area Saw Plane With Landing Lights.

A Continental Airlines Boeing 707 jet carrying 45 persons, including 37 passengers and a crew of eight, crashed last night southwest of Centerville, Ia., on a flight on the way here from Chicago.

A Federal Aviation agency spokesman here said early today that wreckage spread over a wide area near the Iowa-Missouri line had definitely been identified as that of a Continental jet.

An FAA official said the plane was last reported in radio contact at 39,000 feet in southwestern Illinois and was last picked up on radar between

Those on Board

Denver, May 22. (AP)—Continental Airlines tonight leased the following 18 persons aboard a Boeing jet missing on a flight Chicago to Kansas City.

- Crew.
- Capt. Fred Gray, Los Angeles.
- First Officer C. R. Selby, Los Angeles.
- Second Officer Dean L. Los Angeles.
- Dave Olsen, Los Angeles, director of passenger service.
- Hostess Marilyn Bloom, Los Angeles.
- Hostess Mary McGrath, Los Angeles.
- Hostess Ann Berry, Los Angeles.
- Hostess Joyce Rush, Los Angeles.
- Passengers.

- Bowman, Don
- Carter, J.
- Cox, E.
- Coch, E.
- Chiverson, Hamilton, M.
- Hamm, John
- Stewart, B.
- Tunick, J.
- Under, R.
- Bergner, K. M.
- Chapin, J.

BELIEVES AGENT SLAIN

After complete Autopsy, Texas Medical Examiner Ass. Henry Marshall, Agriculture Department Official, Probably Was Murdered.

A's Have Won Four of Last Five.

Dave Wickersham pitched the Athletics to their fourth victory in five starts, 5-1 victory over Boston, yesterday afternoon.

The A's move on to New York for a game today at