Car Crash Fatal To Virgil Lammers At Las Vegas, Nev.

The death of Virgil Frederick Lammers, 27, of Las Vegas, Nev., the son of Mr. and Mrs. William Lammers, occurred at midnight Monday as the result of an automobile accident there. According to reports of the accident received here, Lammers was returning home from the airport where he was employed, and failed to negotiate a curve in his Corvette. He was lead agent in the ticket offices of Bonanza Air Lines at Las Vegas.

The body will arrive tomorrow and a rosary service will be held at the Goodman and Boller Funeral chapel tomorrow evening at 8:45 o'clock.

The funeral service will be Friday at 10 a.m. at the SS. Peter and Paul church, the Very Rev. Msgr. John Dreisoerner and the Rev. James Fuemmeler, parish priests, officiating. Burial will be in the Catholic cemetery.

Mr. Lammers was born September 9, 1935, at Pilot Grove, the son of William and Gladys Smith Lammers. He was graduated from SS. Peter and Paul High school here in 1953 and spent a year with Roy Bucker in the construction business before joining Bonanza Airlines. He had been with Bonanza in Las Vegas for the past six years and for the past year had served as the lead ticket agent.

Surviving are his parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Lammers; one brother, Wilbur Lammers of Boonville; four sisters, Mrs. Ralph Felten and Mrs. Elwod Gerke of Pilot Grove, Mrs. Bob Kirby of O'Fallon and Mrs. Joe Acton of Fulton.
