

Boonville Daily News
26 Nov 1966 (supplement)

3/1

Mrs. T.A. Nelson Dies in Kansas; Services Here

Mrs. T.A. Nelson of Newton, Kan., died there early today. She is the mother of Mrs. Robert T. Geiger of 1006 Locust St. Funeral services are incomplete, but will be held in Boonville, under the direction of the William Wood Funeral Home. Burial will be in Walnut Grove Cemetery. ✓

The former Miss Velma Smith, daughter of Peter Franklin Smith and Margaret Cordry Smith, she was born Sept. 10, 1883, near Bunceton. On Oct. 18, 1904, she was married to Tucker Alpheus Nelson, who died July 29, 1957.

Survivors include three children, Mrs. Robert F. Geiger of Boonville, Edwin S. Nelson of San Francisco, Cal., and Mrs. G.W. Dotson of Newton, Kan., six grandchildren; eight great-grandchildren; one sister, Mrs. C.E. Briggs of Corpus Christi, Texas; and five brothers, Hunter Smith, Homer Smith and Hubert Smith, all of Sedalla, Hershel Smith of Victoria, Texas and Harold Smith of Clarksburg.
