

Warrensburg Daily Star-Journal
16 Jan 1967

3/5

Virgil Mistler

Funeral services were held today at the Centerview Baptist Church for Virgil Mistler, 57, of Centerview, who died in the Johnson County Memorial Hospital on Saturday. He had been a patient there for one day.

The Rev. Robert H. Burk officiated.

Mr. Mistler was born Aug. 18, 1909 in Collins, the son of William Henry and Frances Elizabeth Mistler. He was married at Osceola on Jan. 23, 1929 to Vera Jones, who survives.

Also surviving are three daughters, Peggie Ann Mistler of the home; Mrs. Sue Swope, Centerview, and Mrs. Dorothy Kinder, Fisher, Ill.; four sons, Virgil Mistler, Jr. and Bill Mistler of Centerview; Curtis Mistler, Carrollton and Fred Mistler of Concordia; 16 grandchildren; two sisters, Mrs. Bessie Richey, Appleton City and Mrs. Mae Capps, Chula; two brothers, Claude Mistler, Raytown, and Bernice Mistler of Appleton City.

He was a member of the First Baptist Church at Centerview.

Burial was in the Centerview cemetery under the direction of Sweeney-Phillips Funeral Home.

The pallbearers were Bobby Cox, John Beard, Ralph Stanberry, W. G. Bass, Gale Brant and Hubert Clear.

Honorary pallbearers were Glen Shippy, John Hines, Hort Robinson, Frank South and Frank Shrout.