Mr. Hagan's services

Dorsey W. Hagan, age 75, a resident of Kansas City, Mo., and the Gooch's Mill vicinity, died unexpectedly at his home in Gooch's Mill Monday morning.

He was born there September 17, 1892, the son of Dr. James W. Hagan and Annie Smith Hagan. Most of his life had been spent in Kansas City where he was a bookkeeper but he had maintained farming interests at Gooch's Mill. He was a member of the Baptist Church.

He is survived by one brother, William Arthur Hagan, of Great Falls, Mont. His wife, Gladys, preceded him in death.

The body was moved from the William Wood Funeral Home to Newcomer's Chapel at Brush Creek and the Paseo in Kansas City where funeral services will be held at 2 p.m. Wednesday.
