Mrs. Lizzie Albin

Funeral services for Mrs. Lizzie Maude Albin, 86, were conducted Tuesday at the Clarksburg Baptist Church. She died Saturday at the Albin Rest Home in California where she had been a patient a few days.

Mrs. Albin was born July 17, 1882, in a log house near Clarksburg and lived there her entire life. The farm was homesteaded by her grandfather, John B. Renshaw, a Baptist minister. Her parents were William Radford and Sarah Winnifred Stephens Renshaw.

On April 27, 1916, she was married to George W. Albin, who survives. Also surviving are one son, Denzil, and a grandson, Cecil Lee, of Carl Junction near Joplin.

At the age of 16 she joined the Clarksburg Baptist Church and was an active member as long as her health permitted.

Services were conducted by the Rev. Ronald Gross. Burial was in the Clarksburg Masonic Cemetery. ✓

Pallbearers were Leonard Martin, Ray Albin, William Stahl, Walter Pennington, Raymond Elliott and Alfred Alexander.
