Florist Bedridden 10 Years Is Dead

Frederick L. Cripe, 73, 607 South Eighth Street, who, with his wife, operated Raceview Florist for 43 years, died at his home at 8:30 p.m. Wednesday. He had been bedfast for nearly 11 years after suffering a stroke.

Mr. Cripe was born in Goshen Aug. 9, 1896, and lived in this community all his life. On July 22, 1920, he married Wilma Ganger. He was also employed by the Northern Indiana Public Service Co., for 20 years. He was a member of the Plymouth United Church of Christ.

Surviving with the widow are three sons, Fred Jr., Max and Dean L., all of Goshen; a daughter, Mrs. Dwain (Mary Jane) Spencer, LaCanada, Calif., 11 grandchildren; four great-grandchildren; and a sister, Mrs. Edith Washburn, Wolcottville.

Friends may call after 7 p.m. today at the Yodor-Culp Funeral Home, where funeral services will be conducted at 1:30 p.m. Saturday. The Rev. A. E. Kreider will officiate and burial will be in Violet Cemetery.
