One Person Hurt As Cars Collide

One person was injured in a two-vehicle crash at 11:08 a.m. Friday at Broadway and Engineer.

Mrs. Ernest May, 75, Smithton, suffered lacerations to the knee and lip. She was a passenger in a car driven by her husband, Ernest, 78.

Police said the accident occurred as the west-bound May car was preparing to turn left onto Engineer and collided with a car driven by William Charles Cole, 19, Smithton. According to police, the May car hit a utility pole after the initial impact.

May was issued a citation for failure to yield the right-of-way.

The condition of Mrs. May, who was taken to Bothwell Hospital, was not known at 1 p.m.
