

Star-Journal Photo By TIM BRYANT

... as Central Missouri State University's Mules and Mulekickers
... ming. With a little help from the weatherman, the stands should be

...aining order allowing the
...r to return to school at least
...t hearing set for last
...orney. Andrew Gelbach of
...Wednesday told The Daily
...hat the parties to the suit
...an out-of-court settlement
...to be taken by the board in
...y defining the code.
...on was taken last night, and
...hers. Gelbach nor the school
...ney. William F. Brown of
...resent. The petition has not
...and the restraining order
...ffect, allowing Fisher to
...end classes

...by Arthur Jean Williams, 22, 504
...Greenwood Park, struck a
...parked car owned by Truman
...Robertson, 803 S. Maguire St.
...Gwen Doreen McDonald,
...1221 1/2 N. Main St., reported a
...front window of her mobile
...home was broken last night
...while she was inside. A witness
...outside told police she saw an
...unidentified white male throw a
...rock through the window. The

Deaths/Funerals

Arthur Dameron

Funeral services were held at 2 p.m. yesterday for Arthur Dameron, 82, Chilhowee, who died Tuesday at his home. Officiating at Community United Methodist Church in Chilhowee was the Rev. Wilson Doak, assisted by the Rev. Edward Hahn. Burial was in Chilhowee's Carpenter Cemetery under the direction of the Ward Funeral Home.

Pallbearers were Carl Harclerode, Lowell Schmidli, William Adair, Robert Wharton, Milfred Ficke and Roy Hurd.

Honorary pallbearers were William Harms, Roy Austin, A. C. Turner, Charles Hampton, Rowland West, Dr. J. A. Smith, Kenneth Hurt and John Bancroft.

Did You Know?

A decade ago, the United States imported virtually no oil. Today the country imports 40 per cent. An analysis in "Across the Board," The Conference Board's monthly magazine, notes the current manor care center, Charles Shore, Holden; Mrs. Richard Saunders, Kingsville; Mrs. Elmer Rich, Route 5; Nancy Draisey, Higginsville; Oscar Nowell, Holden; Mrs. Louis Swerngin, Knob Noster.

Mrs. Lennie M. Freeman

Lennie M. Freeman, 82, Leeton, died the morning of Oct. 7 at the Rolling Hills Nursing Home in Overland Park, Kan.

She was born in Leeton on Nov. 18, 1894, the daughter of John A. and Margaret Jane (Rennison) Wyatt.

She and the Rev. Harrison Freeman were married Nov. 18, 1917 in Leeton. He died Nov. 24, 1973.

Mrs. Freeman was a member of Church of the Brethren in Leeton.

She is survived by one daughter, Mrs. Homer (Iona Faye) Haynes of Kansas City, Kan., and one sister, Molly Miller of Chilhowee. Two grandchildren also survive.

Funeral services will be at 2 p.m. Sunday at Church of the Brethren in Leeton. The Revs. Sam and Cindy Weber-Han will officiate. Burial will be in the Mineral Creek Cemetery.

The family will receive friends between 7:30 and 8:30 p.m. tomorrow at the Holden Funeral Home in Leeton.

friends. F
call 656-339

Oct. -8

TINY TOT 1
9 a.m. in
Communt
CREATIVE
a.m. in Co
Grover Pe
YOUNG PE
10:45 a.m
Grover P
Building

SCARECRO
p.m. at auditorium
Leeton's r

Oct. 9

OLD COU Store at 306 N. M
from 1-
Hostess
Americ

BIKE C
Freev
p.m.
and leisu

LES AMIS
Painters
in the C
Courts A
327 Frau

Oct. 10

BUSINESS
Women's
for a bu
Dellwood
clubhouse
vice. Spe