

Hurt-Harger united in Tipton

Teresa Ann Hurt of Grandview and Michael James Harger of Kansas City were united in marriage at the First Baptist Church in Tipton at 1:30 p.m. June 14. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hugh H. Hurt of Tipton and the groom is the son of Mrs. Faye Harger, Sugar Creek.

The Rev. David Faulkner performed the double ring ceremony. Nancy Solomon Sercu of Boonville played various contemporary and classical selections and accompanied Karen Zimmer of St. Louis as she sang "The Rose", "Can You Read My Mind" and "With You I'm Born Again".

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a traditional ivory gown with train, Queen Ann neckline and long sleeves with a ruffle over the band. The chapel length veil featured a Juliet cap and flower trim around the edge of the veil which matched the flower trim on the bodice, sleeves and skirt of the gown. She carried a bouquet of silk French roses with greenery and lily-of-the-valley filler.

Delene Joan Einspahr of Jefferson City served as maid of honor. She wore a formal length champagne pink gown with blouson bodice, elbow length split sleeves and closed, gathered neck. She carried a loose bouquet of French Dubonnet roses, pink roses, lily-of-the-valley and greenery.

Flower girl was Tammy Lynn Harger, daughter of the groom from Independence, and Shawna Denise Day, cousin of the bride from California, Mo. They wore matching gowns of pink floral pattern with matching purses and flower baskets with silk French Dubonnet roses, pink roses, daisies and lily-of-the-valley.

Ring bearer was Jason James Harger, son of the groom from Independence.

Robert L. Harger, brother of the groom from Kansas City, served as best man. Ushers and candlelighters were Mitchell D. Hurt, brother of the bride from Tipton, and Dave Brewer of Kansas City.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Hurt wore a street-length tan pleated skirt with navy belted suit jacket trimmed in matching tan. The groom's mother wore a street-length burgundy belted A-line dress with gathered short sleeves and V-neck. They both wore corsages of silk cream roses and buds.

The reception was held immediately following the ceremony in the American Legion Hall in Tipton. Mrs. Debra J. Rugen was in charge of the guest book. Others assisting were Mrs. Martha Downing of Tipton, Mrs. Grace Day of Bunceton, Mrs. Betty Baker of Tipton, Mrs. June Hurt of California, Mo., Miss Marilyn Carver of Bunceton and Mrs. Debbie Day of Bunceton.

The couple will reside in Kansas City where both are employed at Bendix Corporation.

The bride is a 1974 graduate of Boonville High School and a 1978 graduate of the University of Missouri-Columbia. The groom is a 1970 graduate of William Chrisman High School in Independence and was in the United States Navy from 1970-74 at Miramar Naval Air Base in San Diego, Calif.
