MARVIN W. DOUTT

Marvin Wesley Doutt, 72, of 1805 Ellison Way, a former elementary school teacher in Raymore, died Tuesday at the Medical Center of Independence.

Mr. Doutt taught in the Raymore School District and was a farmer before he retired about 10 years ago. Earlier, he operated Doutt's Standard Service Station in Independence for more than 20 years. He was a member of the RLDS Walnut Park congregation and was a lifelong area resident.

His survivors include his wife, Mary Close Doutt of the home; two daughters, Frances J. Smith, Webster Groves, and Margaret Parrott, House Springs; a sister, Lois Bradshaw, Independence; 13 grandchildren; and a great-grandson.

Services will be 10 a.m. Thursday at the Carson Independence Chapel; burial in Mount Washington Cemetery. Friends may call from 7 to 9 tonight at the chapel. The family suggests contributions to the church.
