

Sedalia Democrat

23 Nov 1982 4/1

Mamie K. Dix

RAYTOWN — Mrs. Mamie King Dix, 81, died Saturday at a nursing home in Overland Park, Kan.

She was born in 1901 in Cooper County. On Dec. 24, 1918, in Boonville, she married Tandy N. Dix, who died in 1969.

Mrs. Dix was raised in Cooper County and resided in the Blackwater, Nelson, Malta Bend and Marshall area for many years. She and her family later moved to Odessa, Mo., where she was a member of the Odessa Baptist Church. She had lived in the Kansas City area since 1969.

Survivors include two sons, Floyd Newton Dix, Raytown; Roger Lynn Dix, San Diego, Calif.; six daughters, Irene (Dixie) Thomas, El Dorado Springs; Nona Mae Inskeep, Nelson; Annabelle Zeffiro, Overland Park, Kan.; Ruby Frances Johnston, Sunrise Beach; Mamie Lorene Moore, Raytown; Gladys Rose Smith, Kansas City; two sisters, Pearl Marshall, Mexico, Mo.; Elva Gash, Marshall; 28 grandchildren; 38 great-grandchildren and one great-great-grandchild.

Funeral services were held at 11 a.m. today at the Floral Hills Funeral Chapel in Raytown with the Rev. Thomas Blaney officiating.

Pallbearers were Michael E. Thomas, James Merle Inskeep, James Edward Johnston, Randy Daryle Dix, Wray Charles Joiner and Gilbert Leon Aterbridge.

Burial was in the Sunset Memorial Gardens Cemetery in Marshall with a prayer service there at 3 p.m. Tuesday.

d: 20 Nov 1982