

Boonville Daily News

31 May 1983

12/2

GLENN STRETZ

Glenn Irvan Stretz, age 71, of Kansas City, Kan., died at St. Luke's Hospital in Kansas City Friday night, May 27, 1983, following a sudden illness. Funeral services were conducted at 2 p.m. today at the William Wood Funeral Home with the Rev. Charles Childers officiating, and burial in Walnut Grove Cemetery. Pallbearers were Bob Stoddard, Gary Harris, Kenneth Harris, Ralph Harris, Fred Harris and Roy Harris.

Mr. Stretz was born Sept. 1, 1911, at Boonville, the son of Henry F. and Clara Haley Stretz. He married Bertha Harris on April 5, 1930, at Marshall. She survives. Mr. Stretz had lived in the Kansas City area since 1946 where he had been employed as a carpenter at the University of Kansas

Medical Center.

Mr. Stretz was preceded in death by a sister.

KELLY MARIE WATRING

Funeral services for Kelly Marie Watring, infant daughter of Randy and Christine Watring of Pilot Grove, were held Sunday at the Meisenheimer Funeral Home in Pilot Grove. The Rev. Kenneth Brockel officiated, and burial was in St. Joseph Cemetery.

Kelly Watring was born May 26, 1983, at Boone Hospital Center in Columbia, and died that same day at the University of Missouri Hospital and Clinics. In addition to her parents, she is survived by a brother, Greg Watring, and her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Freddie Lammers of Pilot Grove and Mr. and Mrs. Jewell Watring of Otterville.