Elvin R. Case

Elvin Ray Case, 82, Calhoun, Mo., died Monday at Golden Valley Memorial Hospital, Clinton.

He was born Nov. 12, 1904, in Agra, Kan., son of W.O. and Amelia Ann Riley Case. On Jan. 21, 1928, in Sedalia, he married Minnie D. Hunt, who survives of the home.

Mr. Case was a farmer and a retired custodian for Central Missouri State University, Warrensburg. He was a member of the Calhoun Baptist Church, where he served as a deacon, trustee and usher.

Other survivors include a son, Elvin Matthew Case, Pauls Valley, Okla.; a brother, Earl Case, 909 E. 13th; two sisters, Mary Adee, Kearney, Neb.; Viola Cecil, 1314 East 13th; five grandchildren and three great-grandchildren.

Funeral services will be at 2:30 p.m. Thursday at the church, with the Rev. Delmar McNeely officiating.

Burial will be in Calhoun Cemetery.

The family will receive friends from 7 to 8:30 p.m. Wednesday at the Ewing Funeral Home.

The family suggests contributions to the church.
