

Independence Examiner

27 Jan 1990

7/1 + 2

MABEL F. RENNISON

Mabel Fern Rennison, 78, Independence, died Friday, Jan. 26, 1990, at Baptist Memorial Hospital.

Mrs. Rennison was born in Rice County, Kan., and has been a lifelong area resident.

Her survivors include her husband, Richard V. Rennison of the home; a brother, Merle Kelsey, Hutchinson, Kan.; three sisters Peggy Carlson, Stronghurst, Ill., Hazel Aldridge, Downing, Mo., and Pauline Burkhardt, Lintner, Mo.; one grandchild; and one great-grandchild.

Services will be 11 a.m. Monday at Newcomer's Noland Road Chapel; graveside services will be 2 p.m. Monday at Peninsula Cemetery, Blackwater Junction, Mo. Friends may call from 7 to 8:30 p.m. Sunday at the chapel.

RAYMOND RODGERS

Raymond "Ray" Rodgers, 74, Independence, died Friday, Jan. 26, 1990, at Parklane Medical Center.

Mr. Rodgers was born in Martinez, Calif., and had lived in Independence for the last 24 years. He owned the Ray-Lee Bookkeeping Co. in Independence for 22 years, semi-retiring in 1978. He was a member of the Immanuel Baptist Church, Independence.

His survivors include his wife, Letha Rodgers of the home; two sons, Russell T. Harvey, California, and James LeRoy, Holden, Mo.; four daughters, Marilyn R. Danos, New Jersey, Donna J. Cygan, Illinois, Sharyn Hulter, Blue Springs, and Judy Gomez, Grandview; one