Raymond Wear and Wilma Walker were married June 23, 1940, in the First Baptist Church in Arkansas City, Cowley County, Kansas. Mr. Clyde Wear, the groom's cousin, of Otterville, served as best man, and Nellie Mounce, the bride's sister, who lives in Peckham, Okla., served as matron of honor. The Rev. John A. Craig, now deceased, officiated.

After Raymond was discharged from the Navy, they moved from Blackwell to near South Haven, Kan., where they lived for 18 years. They then moved to Enid where they have resided for the last 26 years.

Raymond was employed by the Arkla Gas Co. for 40 years. He retired in 1977 from Arkla, then worked part-time at Newman's department store. Wilma worked for Newman's for 15 years, until it closed.

Raymond was originally from Otterville, and Wilma was from near Arkansas City, Kan. They are the parents of two sons, Myrl of Middletown, Ohio; and Ron, of Pasadena, Calif.; and one daughter, Barbara Robison of Yukon, Okla. They also have six grandsons and one granddaughter.

The couple requests no gifts, please.
