

Sweet Springs Herald
30 Sep 1992 8/1

Lela E. Banks

Lela E. Banks, age 86, of Sweet Springs died Monday, September 28, 1992 at Fitzgibbon Memorial Hospital in Marshall, Mo.

Born April 25, 1906 in Nelson, Mo. She was the daughter of Robert Lester and Louise (Hooper) Renno.

On December 23, 1922 she married Thomas Russell Banks in Marshall, Mo.

She was a member of the First Christian Church in Sweet Springs and lived most of her life as a resident of the Sweet Springs area.

Services are scheduled to be held Wednesday morning at the First Christian Church in Sweet Springs. Rev. Robert Roselius of Sweet

Springs will be officiating and interment will take place at Fairview Cemetery.

Survivors include a sister, Mrs. Corine Townsend of Sedalia, Mo., six grandchildren, Mrs. Sharon (Allen) Bredehoeft of Sweet Springs, Mrs. Judy (Larry) Holland of Sweet Springs, Russell Dean Banks of Fairmont, West Virginia, Robert Eugene Banks of Blue Springs and Raymond Elwood Banks of Independence, Mo. and two daughter-in-laws, Mrs. Mildred L. Banks of Sweet Springs and Mrs. Mary B. Banks of Independence. And 12 great-grandchildren.

She is preceded in death by her parents, spouse-Thomas Russell Banks Sr., two sons, Thomas Robert Banks and Thomas Russell Banks, Jr., one brother, Bill Renno and two sisters, Helen Morris and Emma Zue Schmidt.

Services were arranged by Berg Mortuaries Sweet Springs Chapel.