

OBITUARIES

Jessie May Nichols, 80

Jessie May Nichols, 80, of Route 1, Otterville, passed away on Sunday, November 29, at Four Seasons Care Center in Sedalia.

Born April 9, 1912, near Otterville, she was the daughter of George and Jessie Mae Homan Wear. She was married on August 9, 1935 in Knob Noster to George Nichols, who survives of the home. She was a member of the Wesley Methodist Church in Sedalia, where she was active in the Womens Fellowship.

Mrs. Nichols was a teacher, who taught in schools in Fayetteville, Smithton, St. Charles, Jefferson City over a period of about 15 years. She retired from teaching in 1961.

She is survived by two sons, John Franklin Nichols of Shawnee, Kansas and James Morris Nichols of Shokan, New York. She is also survived by two brothers, Clyde Wear of Otterville and Homan Wear of Independence, Missouri, and by four grandchildren.

Funeral services were held at 2 p.m. on Tuesday, December 1, at the Meisenheimer Funeral Home in Otterville with Rev. James Lawley officiating. Burial was in the IOOF Cemetery in Otterville.

Pallbearers were Jack Wear, William Wear, David Young, Robert Young, Rick Rodewald and John McCutchen.

Tour

(Continued from

marionettes on the v
cottage, which is beginning stages for preparation four a venture.

•Gingerbread C
High Street - At

George and Lica
Christmas comes to Queen Anne-Style
collection of antiqu
and spice villages
sure to delight visi
enjoy the seven Ch

Tickets for this ho
$5 in advance and $ tour. Advance ti purchased at Go
IGA, Price Cho
Decorating Gal
chamber office. C
tickets can be pu
Boonville Fire Dep
at the intersection
Bingham Road.

For additional i
the Boonville Ar