Robert J. Doutt

Robert J. Doutt, 85, of 401 Gilfillan St. in Franklin died at 3:10 am Tuesday in Venango Manor.

Born May 7, 1907, in Polk, he was a son of the late Harry and Minnie Hall Doutt.

Mr. Doutt grew up in the Polk area and attended the public schools there.

He was married April 24, 1929, to the former Eula Reichart. She died March 18, 1985.

Following 40 years of employment with Chicago Pneumatic Tool Co., he retired from the Fort Worth, Texas, plant in 1969.

Mr. Doutt was a member of the CPT Quarter Century Club, the Rocky Grove Avenue Presbyterian Church and the Masonic Myrtle Lodge.

Surviving are two daughters, Mrs. Bernard (Gwen) Speth of Rocky Grove and Mrs. Chester (Sally) Robinson of Fort Worth; and one brother, Ralph Doutt of Rapid City, S.D.

Also surviving are five grandchildren, Mrs. Glenn (Robin) Milam, Mrs. Tim (Amy) Kitzmiller and Robert Robinson, all of Fort Worth, Mrs. A.T. (Nancy) Trimble of Winston-Salem, N.C., and David Speth of Franklin; and five great-grandchildren.

In addition to his parents and wife, Mr. Doutt was preceded in death by a sister, Mrs. James (Cora) Jolley; and a brother, Fred Doutt.

The Huff Chapel of Franklin is in charge of arrangements.
