

JACK SEAT

JUNCTION - Jack Wilbur Seat, 87, died Saturday, Feb. 12, 2000, in Independence, Mo.

Service will be at 2 p.m. today in Aubrey Fife Fuberal Chapel with burial in Junction Cemetery.

He was born April 4, 1912, in Kansas City, Mo., and had lived in Junction. He was a supervisor for Butler Manufacturing Co. and was a member of Hill Country Baptist Church.

Survivors include four daughters, Sylvia Seat Crook and Cheryl Brown, both of Independence, Jackie Mindling of Carlton, Ore., and Melody Myers of Springfield; six grandchildren; and six great-grandchildren.