Madeline Bruce Wilcoxon

Madeline Bruce Wilcoxon, 81, of Marshall, died Monday, June 5, 2000, at Fitzgibbon Hospital in Marshall.

Funeral services will be held at 10:30 a.m. Thursday, June 8, at First United Methodist Church in Marshall. Rev. Steven Burbee will officiate. Organist Jane Huff will accompany the congregation as they sing the hymns "O For a Thousand Tongues to Sing" and "How Great Thou Art." Friends may call Wednesday, June 7, at Campbell-Lewis Funeral Home in Marshall. Burial will be in Ridge Park Cemetery in Marshall. Pallbearers will be Allan Jensen, Ralph Wenzel, Jerry Kelly, Kelly Kelly, Lonnie Burns and Kevin Riggs. Memorials are suggested to First United Methodist Church or charity of choice.

Born Dec. 19, 1918, in Cooper County, she was the daughter of the late Oden and Emma Case Bruce. On Dec. 16, 1941, in Sedalia, she married Dr. Leonard A. Wilcoxon, who survives. She had lived in Marshall since 1950, moving from Kansas City. She was a member of First United Methodist Church in Marshall. She was a homemaker and, in earlier years, taught school at Sunnyside School in rural Pettis County. She attended Central Missouri State Teachers College in Warrensburg.

Additional survivors include one son, Dr. Don Wilcoxon and wife Jan of Leawood, Kan.; one brother, O. Ralph Bruce of Perris, Calif.; two granddaughters, Laura and Anne Wilcoxon; and one niece, Phyllis Peterson of Osseo, Wis.
