

LEE PATRICK HALEY

07/05/01

Lee Patrick Haley was born November 11, 1947 in Beloit, Wisconsin to Chris L. and Shirley M. (Archer) Haley. He died in Oak Harbor, WA, June 21, 2001.

Lee was a carpenter and skilled cabinet maker, working for Bodine, Harrington and other developers and operating his own Haley Construction. He moved into cabinetry work, owning and operating Classic Kitchen Design of Oak Harbor.

He loved music, and was a talented and respected musician. His most recent band, "Timberline Express", played in many local clubs and festivals. Lee was a past Post Commander of the American Legion, George Morris Post 129 and a member of the Veterans of Foreign Wars, Whitehead-Muzzall Post 7392, both of Oak Harbor. He was an active participant in the Whidbey Island Jazz Festival for many years, operating the sound systems.

Lee Haley is survived by his parents, Chris and Shirley Haley of Dixon, California; three children: Patrick Haley and Jeannine Haley, both of Cortland, Ohio and Nicole Davis of Oak Harbor and by his fiance' Kami Stackhouse of Oak Harbor. He is also survived by three sisters: Ginger Kuntsman of Tehachapi, CA, Mariea Kubanis of Ukiah, CA and Patricia Duncan of Santa Rosa, CA; and by three brothers, Michael Haley of Niceville, FL, Kelly Haley of Burlington, WA and Daniel Haley of Dixon, CA. One grandson, Jordan Davis of Oak Harbor also survives. He was preceded in death by one brother, Bruce Haley.

Funeral Services for Lee have been held at the Bible Baptist Church in Oak Harbor followed by full military honors in Ukiah, CA.

A gathering of musicians and friends will be held to celebrate Lee's life on Sunday, July 8, 2001 at the George Morris Post 129 American Legion in Oak Harbor, WA from 4:00 p.m. to 10:00 p.m. For more information call Dan MacDonald at 360-770-2023

[From: Skagit Valley Herald, Washington State, 5 July 2001]