

28 Sept 2001

Helen E. Wiseman

Helen Elizabeth Shields Wiseman, died Friday, Sept. 28, 2001, at the Oak Grove Nursing and Rehab Facility in Oak Grove.

Mrs. Wiseman was born Jan. 19, 1922, to Elvina Gertrude Rusher Dorrell and to Henry Lee Dorrell in Marceline, Mo. In 1935, she moved to northeast Kansas City, where she attended Northeast High School. She married Wallace J. Shields in 1937. He preceded her in death in 1982.

She was a beautician and owned Helen's Beauty Shop at 23rd Street and Sterling, Independence, for 15 years.

Her survivors include her husband, Raymond Wiseman of Columbia, Mo.; two sons and daughters-in-law, Larry and Sue Shields, Hot Springs Village, Ark., and Steve and Mitzi Shields, Houston, Texas; two daughters and sons-in-law, Judi and Roy Van Meter, Oak Grove, and Pam and Dick Douth, Parker, Colo.; 12 grandchildren; 14 great-grandchildren; sister, Madge Hayes, Independence, and a half sister, Mable Main, Marceline.

Services will be at 11 a.m. Tuesday at D.W. Newcomer's Noland Road Chapel. Burial will be in Woodlawn Cemetery, Independence. Friends may call from 10 a.m. until service time Tuesday at the chapel. In lieu of flowers, the family suggests contributions to Carondelet Hospice.

[From: Independence Examiner, Independence, Missouri, 1 October 2001]