

27 Feb 2001

THOMAS JAMES RENISON, SR.

83, years old, of West Palm Beach, Fl, died on Monday, February 26, 2001 at the Good Samaritan Medical Center, following a brief illness. Born in Hempstead, New York, he was a resident of the Palm Beach area since 1963.

Mr. Renison was a graduate of Fordham University, Class of 1939 and an avid outdoorsman who enjoyed quail hunting, bird dog training, and fishing. In 1951, he began working for Bessemer Properties in Leon and Martin Counties, then worked on a ranch in Osceola County on the property that is now known as Three Lakes Wildlife Management. Mr. Renison moved to West Palm Beach in the early 1960's to work for the Town of Palm Beach, Public Works Department, and he was also employed for many years at the Palm Beach Kennel Club until his retirement in 1990. He was preceded in death by his wife, Ellen H. Renison who died in 1994.

He is survived by his son, Thomas J. Renison, Jr. of West Palm Beach, FL; a brother, John D. Renison of Westbury, New York; & several nieces & nephews.

The Funeral Service and interment for Mr. Renison will be held in New York.

Local arrangements by: QUATTLEBAUM-HOLLEMAN-BURSE FUNERAL HOME

[From: The Palm Beach Post, West Palm Beach, FL,
27 February 2001.]