

TUARIES 17 Sept 2002
Boonville Daily News

Doris H. Nelson, 74

Doris H. Nelson, 74, died Monday, September 2, 2002 at San Jose, Calif. A memorial service will be held Sept. 18, 220 at 2 p.m. at the First Congregational Church of San Jose at 1980 Hamilton Avenue, San Jose, Calif. Interment services will be held at Walnut Grove Cemetery in Boonville, Mo., at 2 pm. Saturday, Sept. 21 with the Rev. L.P. Cook officiating.

Mrs. Nelson was born August 6, 1928 in Pleasant Green, Mo., the daughter of the late Lewis V. and R. Vesta Harvey Hurt. She was united in marriage in 1948 to Walter H. Nelson, who preceded her in death in 1975. She grew up during the Depression on the family farm at Pleasant Green. She moved to Pilot Grove with her family in 1944 and graduated from Pilot Grove High School in 1946 at the top of her class. She attended Central Missouri State University at Warrensburg, Mo., where she studied business and music. She and her husband settled in the Bay area in 1960. They had one child, Susan.

The family requests donations in memory of Doris H. Nelson be made to Town Cats, P.O. Box 1828, Morgan Hill, Calif., 95038.