- I spend a lot of time online researching various lines and have checked out this site before and enjoyed it--thought I had wrung it dry. Then after an absence of a few months just checked it again. Unbelievable how much new "stuff" you have added. This county is by far the best web site I have found on the MANY different counties I have checked out in about half the US. I am delighted to say that probably half my hubby's relatives came from Cooper Co. so makes my searching that much easier. Thanks for all your hard work. Can't brag on you enough. Just wish that my other counties were this easy. – L Smith, November 2000
