Mrs. McMullin was raised in Boonville, where she graduated from Laura Speed Elliott High School. She worked for more than four decades in office management, and ended her professional career helping her husband operate their business, W&M Welding, Inc. After retiring, she continued her life-long passion of serving and helping others. She dedicated herself tirelessly to her church, community and family. Mrs. McMullin loved people deeply and gave generously of herself. She enjoyed nothing more than doing for others and was a loving and devoted wife, daughter, mother, grandmother, sister and friend. She was a long-time member of Hughesville Baptist Church, where she loved serving as treasurer and hospitality coordinator. She also founded and led a non-denominational group for the women of the Hughesville community, which met monthly. She was a former city clerk for Hughesville and was elected to serve several terms on the Town Board. Currently, she served on the Sedalia Salvation Army Board, was an alternate on the Central Missouri Workforce Development Board, and supported her husband's efforts as a trustee at Hannibal-LaGrange College in Hannibal. In all she did, Mrs. McMullin led by example and was passionate about living a life that brought people to know her Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ. She is survived by two sons, Christopher Schuster, of Pacific, and his wife, Melanie; Myron "Buddy" Raines, of Licking; a daughter, Robin May, of Columbia, and her husband, Tom May; three step-sons, Jimmie and Kenny Raines and Kevin McMullin, of Sedalia, and a step-daughter, Tresa Twenter. Also surviving are three sisters, Sherry Bader, of Pilot Grove, Wanda Kostopolus, of Belton, Cindy Stewart of Branson; three brothers, Morgan Arnold, of Bunceton, Gary Cornine, of Sedalia and Orvil Cornine. Her beloved grandchildren, Cody and Tara Schuster, Brittany Rollins, Madison and Matthew May, Austin Bunch, step-grandchildren, Robin and Gage McMains, Kelsey, Billy and Nick Twenter survive and live joyfully in her memory.
